MOST OF WHEAT IN BEFORE THE RAINS STARTED

An estimated million dollars is expected from the area's grain crops and should be harvested by early next week, barring unfavorable weather.

Even though the wheat and grain harvest was slowed a few days because of rain it is estimated that 90 per cent of the crop has been brought in.

There was some cutting late Tuesday and combines were expected to be back in the fields at full swing by Wednesday evening, following rains Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

By Wednesday afternoon an estimated 495,000 bushels of grain had been put in elevators with 450,000 in wheat, 25,000 in barley and 20,000 in oats. It is expected that the crop will gross 550,000 bushels and will add close to a million dollars to the area's economic status.

Yields on wheat are averaging from 15 to 30 bushels to the acre which is much more than was first expected.

Some of the grains are being stored at the farms for use in feeding and seed, but the 550,000 bushel estimate is for the total crop.

As far as can be determined, there was not an unusual amount of damage caused by the rain. About 85 percent of the crop had been harvested before the rains fell.

can you spare 9 minutes to read a message 19 centuries old?

The Sermon on the Mount is for everyone. Anyone who reads it will be happier today. Anyone who carries it in his heart will be happier forever. Read...re-read...and understand its words. No speech ever promised...or delivered...so much.

WHEN he saw the crowds of people he went up on the mountain. There he seated himself, and when his disciples had come up to him, he opened his lips to teach them. And he said:

★ Blessed are those who feel their spiritual need, for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to them! Blessed are the mourners, for they will be consoled! Blessed are the humble-minded, for they will possess the land! Blessed are those who are hungry and thirsty for uprightness, for they will be satisfied! Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy! Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God! Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called God's sons! Blessed are those who have endured persecution for their uprightness, for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to them! Blessed are you when people abuse you, and persecute you, and falsely say everything bad of you, on my account. Be glad and exult over it, for you will be richly rewarded in heaven, for that is the way they persecuted the prophets who went before you!

★ You are the salt of the earth! But if salt loses its strength, how can it be made salt again? It is good for nothing but to be thrown away and trodden underfoot. You are the light of the world! A city that is built upon a hill cannot be hidden. People do not light a lamp and put it under a peck-measure; they put it on its stand and it gives light to everyone in the house. Your light must burn in that way among men so that they will see the good you do, and praise your Father in heaven.

★ Do not suppose that I have come to do away with the Law or the Prophets. I have not come to do away with them but to fulfill them. For I tell you, as long as heaven and earth endure, not one dotting of an i or crossing of a t will be dropped from the Law until it is all observed. Anyone, therefore, who weakens one of the slightest of these commands, and teaches others to do so, will be ranked lowest in the Kingdom of Heaven; but anyone who observes them and teaches others to do so will be ranked high in the Kingdom of Heaven. For I tell you that unless your uprightness is far superior to that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never even enter the Kingdom of Heaven!

★ You have heard that men were told, "You shall not commit adultery." But I tell you that anyone who stays from his marriage in thoughts of lust toward another has already committed adultery in his heart. But if your right eye makes you fall, get rid of it, throw it away, for you might better lose one part of your body than have it all thrown into the pit! If your right hand makes you fall, get rid of it, throw it away! For you might better lose one part of your body than have it all go down to the pit!

★ They were told, "Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a certificate of divorce." But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife on any ground, except unfaithfulness, makes her commit adultery, and anyone who marries her after she is divorced commits adultery.

★ Again, you have heard that the men of old were told, "You shall not swear falsely, but you must fulfill your oaths to the Lord." But I tell you not to swear at all, either by heaven, for it is God's throne, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great king. You must not swear by your own head, for you cannot make one single hair white or black. But your way of speaking must be "Yes" or "No." Anything that goes beyond that comes from the evil one.

★ You have heard that the men of old were told "You shall not murder," and "Whoever murders will have to answer to the court." But I tell you that anyone who gets angry with his brother will have to answer to the court, and anyone who speaks contemptuously to his brother will have to answer to the great council, and anyone who says to his brother "You cursed fool!" will have to answer for it in the fiery pit! So when you are presenting your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother has any grievance against you, leave your gift right there before the altar and go and make up with your brother; then come back and present your gift. Be quick and come to terms with your opponent while you are on the way to court with him, or he may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. I tell you, you will never get out again until you have paid the last penny!

★ You have heard that they were told, "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth." But I tell you not to resist injury, but if anyone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other to him too; and if anyone wants to sue you for your shirt, let him have your coat too. And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go two miles with him. If anyone begs from you, give to him, and when anyone wants to borrow from you, do not turn

★ You have heard that they were told, "You must love your neighbor and hate your enemy." But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for your persecutors, so that you may show yourselves true sons of your Father in heaven, for he makes his sun rise on bad and good alike, and makes the rain fall on the upright and the wrongdoers. For if you love only those who love you, what reward can you expect? Do not the very tax-collectors do that? And if you are polite to your brothers and no one else, what is there remarkable in that? Do not the very heathen do that? So you are to be perfect, as your heavenly Father is!

★ But take care not to do your good deeds in public for people to see, for, if you do, you will get no reward from your Father in heaven. So when you are going to give to charity, do not blow a trumpet before yourself, as the hypocrites do, in the places of worship and the streets, to make people praise them. I tell you, that is all the reward they will get! But when you give to charity, your own left hand must not know what your right hand is doing, so that your charity may be secret, and your Father who sees what is secret will reward you.

★ When you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites, for they like to pray standing in the places of worship and in the corners of the squares, to let people see them. I tell you, that is the only reward they will get! But when you pray, go into your own room, and shut the door, and pray to your Father who is unseen, and your Father who sees what is secret will reward you. And when you pray, do not repeat empty phrases as the heathen do, for they imagine that their prayers will be heard if they use words enough. You must not be like them. For God, who is your Father, knows what you need before you ask him. This, therefore, is the way you are to pray:

*Our Father in heaven,
Your name be revered!
Your kingdom come!
Your will be done on earth
as it is done in heaven!
Give us today bread for the day;
And forgive us our debts,
as we have forgiven our debtors.
And do not subject us to temptation,
But save us from the evil one!*

For if you forgive others when they offend you, your heavenly Father will forgive you too. But if you do not forgive others when they offend you, your heavenly Father cannot forgive you for your offenses.

★ When you fast, do not put on a gloomy look, like the hypocrites, for they neglect their personal appearance to let people see that they are fasting. I tell you, that is all the reward they will get. But when you fast, perfume your hair and wash your face, so that no one may see that you are fasting, except your Father who is unseen, and your Father who sees what is secret, will reward you.

★ Do not store up your riches on earth, where moths and rust destroy them, and where thieves break in and steal them, but store up your riches in heaven, where moths and rust cannot destroy them, and where thieves cannot break in and steal them. For wherever your treasure is, your heart will be also. The eye is the lamp of the body. If then your eye is sound, your whole body will be light, but if your eye is unsound, your whole body will be dark. If, therefore, your very light is darkness, how deep the darkness will be! No slave can belong to two masters, for he will either hate one and love the other, or stand by one and make light of the other. You cannot serve God and money. Therefore, I tell you, do not worry about life, wondering what you will have to eat or drink, or about your body, wondering what you will have to wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body than clothes? Look at the wild birds. They do not sow or reap, or store their food in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more account than they? But which of you with all his worry can add a single hour to his life? Why should you worry about clothing? See how the wild flowers grow. They do not toil or spin, and yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his splendor was never dressed like one of them. But if God so beautifully dresses the wild grass, which is alive today and is thrown into the furnace tomorrow, will he not much more surely clothe you, you who have so little faith? So do not worry and say, "What shall we have to eat?" or "What shall we have to drink?" or

"What shall we have to wear?" For these are all things the heathen are in pursuit of, and your heavenly Father knows well that you need all this. But you must make his kingdom, and uprightness before him, your greatest care, and you will have all these other things besides. So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will have worries of its own. Let each day be content with its own ills.

★ Pass no more judgments upon other people, so that you may not have judgment passed upon you. For you will be judged by the standard you judge by, and men will pay you back with the same measure you have used with them. Why do you keep looking at the speck in your brother's eye, and pay no attention to the beam that is in your own? How can you say to your brother, "Just let me get that speck out of your eye," when all the time there is a beam in your own? You hypocrite! First get the beam out of your own eye, and then you can see to get the speck out of your brother's eye.

★ Do not give what is sacred to dogs, and do not throw your pearls before pigs, or they will trample them under their feet and turn and tear you in pieces. Ask, and what you ask will be given you. Search, and you will find what you search for. Knock, and the door will open to you. For it is always the one who asks who receives, and the one who searches who finds, and the one who knocks to whom the door opens. Which of you men when his son asks him for some bread will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a snake? So if you, bad as you are, know enough to give your children what is good, how much more surely will your Father in heaven give what is good to those who ask him for it! Therefore, you must always treat other people as you would like to have them treat you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets!

★ Go in at the narrow gate. For the road that leads to destruction is broad and spacious, and there are many who go in by it. But the gate is narrow and the road is hard that leads to life, and there are few that find it.

★ Beware of the false prophets, who come to you disguised as sheep but are ravenous wolves underneath. You can tell them by their fruit. Do people pick grapes off thorns, or figs off thistles? Just so any sound tree bears good fruit, but a poor tree bears bad fruit. No sound tree can bear bad fruit, and no poor tree can bear good fruit. Any tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and burned. So you can tell them by their fruit. It is not everyone who says to me "Lord! Lord!" who will get into the Kingdom of Heaven, but only those who do the will of my Father in heaven. Many will say to me on that Day, "Lord! Lord! Was it not in your name that we prophesied, and by your name that we drove out demons, and by your name that we did many mighty acts?" Then I will say to them plainly, "I never knew you! Go away from me, you who do wrong!"

★ Everyone, therefore, who listens to this teaching of mine and acts upon it, will be like a sensible man who built his house on rock! And the rain fell, and the rivers rose, and the winds blew, and beat about that house, and it did not go down, for its foundations were on rock. And anyone who listens to this teaching of mine and does not act upon it, will be like a foolish man who built his house on sand. And the rain fell and the rivers rose, and the winds blew and beat about the house, and it went down, and its downfall was complete.

★ When Jesus had finished this discourse, the crowds were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them like one who had authority and not like their scribes.

WEST TEXAS AND INDUSTRY

(Editor's Note: The following essay was written by Carol Joe Simpson and was second place winner in the Industrial Essay Contest Sponsored by the Board of Community Development. Essays entitled "What West Texas Can Do to Have More Industry-And How My Town Can Help," were written by group of senior students for the competition.)

important it is to keep our schools modern and attractive. Churches play a vital role in the life of a community; thus it is our duty as Christian citizens to provide for, and support our churches so that people of all faiths may find a pleasing place to worship. A thriving trade center is something that will result from industry, but we have a need for one before we obtain more industries. When people work and go in as fast a pace as today, they need an outlet. Such an outlet can be assured in a proper recreation center. People need a certain amount of fun and some form of fun must be provided. Here are the basic requirements for the people connected with industry.

An Italian cloth factory in the sixteenth century marked the beginning of an eight-letter word we call industry. Gradually its influence spread into all Europe, finally causing an Industrial Revolution to break out in the eighteenth century. Men are always dreaming of ways to make more money without increasing the work, and up until the eighteenth century, men's wishes had ended in fantastic tales of flying carpets and magic lamps. It is because of these wishes of men, though, that we have today all our marvelous inventions, and it is the production of these inventions that necessitates industry.

Skill, ingenuity, and systematic labor are merely words which try to convey to us the idea of what industry is, but if we allow our thought to stop with just these words, we have not received the true concept of industry. We must go beyond these simple definitions and seek to find out how important this word can be for our nation, our state and our town.

Besides these there are requirements for each citizen in his part for attracting industry. Surely we realize that anything, no matter what it is, is composed of people. Industries are made up of people. Towns are made up of people. Towns are part in determining the success of either. The individual citizen should possess personal feelings and a general interest in industry. He should display loyalty at all times to his town and to the businesses which make up the town, and greatest of all he should have a willingness for hard work and sacrifices. It has been said, "Never one thing and seldom one person can make or a success. It takes a number of them merging into one perfect whole."

We are capable of meeting these requirements in many respects. Geographically we are endowed with a warm dry, climate; physically speaking we have plenty of wide open spaces; and socially we are fortunate in being a very friendly type of people. Through these possibilities we have a great potential for attracting industry. However, these possibilities are no good if they are idle, but put some energy and spark behind them and we have unlimited chances.

Before anything is ever accomplished, organization must be present. To begin a program for attraction of industry, the town must come together and plan a campaign. In this meeting the idea of the individual citizen's responsibility must be clearly carried over and absorbed. Projects should get under way to clean up our city, not only outwardly, but also inside. While this problem can take much time, the illegal practices within the city must be eliminated. By means of the clean-up campaign every citizen will be involved and will develop an interest and a pride in his town.

Surveys are used extensively every day to track down valuable a good way for us to find out all about our assets? From these surveys we should get new ideas which when showed to the public will arouse them and gain their attention.

When this campaign is in full swing, it should be publicized throughout the area. If this along with other outstanding civic activities is advertised, it will catch the eye of industry and it will know that we really welcome it.

Fires are started by a small flame or explosion. Why don't we as Hamlin citizens kindle this flame now and let it quench West Texas.

First Methodist Church Announces June Activities

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, Tex.—Most ardent advocates of a tax bill to pour fresh funds into the state's coffers likely will be legislative employees.

They may be hunting new jobs or working for nothing before the year is out.

Only about $130,000 remains in the legislative expense fund for use between now and the end of the year. A good part of this probably will be needed to pay travel and miscellaneous expenses of the study committees that meet between sessions.

If these expenses run very high, the permanent legislative employees—people who keep records, staff the legislative library, etc.—may run short on salary money.

Their only course, if they want to stay on in their jobs, will be to hang on until the new legislature finds money to pay them.

SESSIONS COSTS TOTLED
Last year's legislative sessions—$2,773,140. Three of the five members of the House General Investigating Committee also did not run for new terms. They are Rep. H. J. Blanchard, chairman, and Reps. Joe Burkett of Kerrville and Carl Conley of Raymonville.

Rest of the expense is mostly for the employees to keep a session going—answer letters, keep records, print bills, etc. SALES TAX TAKE ESTIMATED—A retail sales tax with groceries, medical and other services exempted would raise an estimated $133,000,000 a year, a legislative committee was told.

Collection costs would run about $3,000,000 a year, a Texas Research League tax expert told the Commission on State and Local Tax Policy.

If the tax covered only partially finished products but raw products used by business in manufacturing, the take would be some $80,000,000 a year more but would result in the collection costs running about $3,000,000 a year in state revenue is a t stale.

Tennessee Gas Transmission Co., which filed a separate suit, was the first to begin argument in the Austin district court. A consolidated suit, involving 80 other companies will be heard by the same court on June 16.

TEHERAN, Iran—A mason, mechanic, metal worker or other artisan must have his own tools to practice a trade in Iran.

Yet it would take a year for vocational school graduates to earn the tools in the $20 trade kits Americans can send through CARE, New York 16, N. Y. The gifts mean graduates can get jobs at once.

NEWS FROM YOUR BCD

By ORVILLE D. ROLAND, Manager

Recreation and relaxation genda. Mounting tensions and should be on everybody's amental strains take heavy toll of the nations executives each year.

Vacations are no longer considered luxuries only for the rich. Today's employers consider vacations as nothing more than good business. Their employees return to their jobs more vigorous than before and efficiency experts note a definite trend to better performance on the part of the employee several weeks following his vacation. Therefore, the employer profits by employees vacation, creates better relations and work goes on much smoother in the trying months ahead.

When a man reaches the point when he thinks his business cannot operate without him, he has already waited too late for a much needed rest. He should see his doctor--and maybe a head shrinker or two. He has grown stale and is decreasing his own value to himself, his family, and his business.

This is vacation time and over 50 million Americans will be shifting from one place to another looking for a change of scenery. They will visit many interesting places and see things they have never seen before. They will spend nearly four billion dollars and return home, many of them broke, but happy.

They learn to appreciate more things at home--they get a finer perspective on life--they work hard and get back into the harness of production.

After all, isn't this what we are here for? Isn't life itself one series of events after another? Change is taking place all around us and we can't stop it simply by staying in our own little world and pretending that things are the same.

If we are satisfied with our life and not striving for greater things, haven't we reached the 'end of our rope'? Unless we actually expect great things to happen to us they never will.

If we don't expect great things to happen to our community, it never will.

Go! Go places and see things! Go different places and see different things! See how others live in what seems to you as remote corners of the earth. Refresh yourself with new friends, new ideas, and new hopes. Then return home and compare what you have learned with your own community. See how the world has changed more in some places than other and try to reason why these changes came about.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Morin, of Dayton are parents of a boy, Gordon Matthew, born on May 27. He weighed 7 lbs. and 2 oz.

The books, "The Big Fisherman" by Lloyd C. Douglas and "Guide Post Anthology" edited by Norman Vincent Peale, have been placed in the Harden Memorial Library in memory of Mrs. Bowen Pope.

Pony League Results

Standings in the Tri-County P-O-N-Y Baseball league were changed little since last week.

On Friday Jayton forfeited to Rotan and the Hamlin-Aspermont game was rained out.

Competing will be teams from Abilene, Stamford, Hamlin, two from Anson and Ericksdahl. All teams except Ericksdahl are under the sponsorship of a Junior Chamber of Commerce chapter. Ericksdahl will appear under the colors of the community's church.

The tourney kicks off with Abilene and Hamlin doing the honors, at 7 p.m. Anson Gophers and Ericksdahl tangle in an 8:30 affair, while Stamford will take on Anson Firefighters at 10 p.m.

The bracket calls for two games Friday night with consolation and finals Saturday night.

The event is a warmup preliminary to the start of the Tri-County Softball League which starts June 5 and continues through August 14. Another will follow the league, Longley said.

First and second rounds will be played Saturday.

Blue Womack, tournament chairman, announced that entry fees are $10, which includes a ticket to the barbecue.

Visiting with Mrs. Red Wallace during this past week were her mother, Mrs. Myrtle Locke, her sister, Mrs. Milton McKinley, Jamie and Susan of Stamford and her aunt, Mrs. Jessie Beavers of San Antonio. Mrs. Locke is moving back to Hamlin from Colorado Springs, Colorado. She will make her home at 229 N. Fourth Street. Mrs. Beaver, Mrs. Locke's sister, returned home Sunday.

The public is invited to come and take part. Refreshments will be served.

'PORGY AND BESS' COMING TO DRIVE IN FOR FOUR DAYS

The Unforgiven'

Starts Sunday
At Ferguson

"The Unforgiven," a stark story of a bitter feud to the death between a pioneer frontier family guarding a deep-laid secret about one of their own and an Indian tribe, will open Sunday at the Ferguson Theatre through United Artists release.

Starred in the picture, which was filmed on location in and around Durango, Mexico, are Burt Lancaster and Audrey Hepburn. Other top roles are played by such famous screen performers as Audie Murphy, John Saxon, Charles Bickford, Lillian Gish, Albert Salmi, Joseph Wiseman and June Walker. Academy Award - winner John Huston directed the Hecht-Hill-Lancaster presentation which James Hill produced. Filmed in Technicolor and Panavision, the story is based on a best-selling novel by Alan LeMay, with screen play by Ben Maddow. The musical score was composed by another Academy Award - winner Dimitri Tiomkin. Photography was by Franz Planer.

Such favorites as "Summer-time," "Bess, You Is My Woman Now," "I Got Plenty O' Nuttin'" and a score of others make "Porgy and Bess" a richly rewarding musical experience in the opinion of the critics who have already seen it and the millions who visited the film during and since its spectacular opening engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Weaver of Aspermont are parents of a baby girl, Glenda Joy, who was born May 28. Her wt. was 5 pounds and 10 oz.
